ASKS $2,500 FROM CITY

Miss Marguerite Clay Sues for Injuries Received in Fall.

Miss Marguerite Clay, a sophomore in the College of Arts and Science, filed suit in the Circuit Court late Friday afternoon against the City of Columbia asking $2,500 damages for injuries she received November 13 when she slipped and fell on the stepping stones at Locust and Ninth streets.

The plaintiff states in her petition that the fall injured her collar bone and shoulder bone and bruised her side and body. It is also declared that Columbia's stepping stones are a menace to public safety and dangerous to life and limb.

TWENTY-ONE SEEK OFFICE IN PRIMARY

ago and engaged in the mercantile business, later going into the insurance and real estate business, in which he is now engaged.

City Marshal.

J. L. Whitesides, present chief of Columbia police, is a candidate for reelection. He has been a resident of Columbia for the last twelve years and has served four terms as city marshal. He is a native of Missouri, and came here from Harrisburg.

D. H. Rowland, candidate for the nomination for marshal, has been the night officer on the police force for the last six years. He came here seven years ago. "Deck" Rowland is known to the University men of the last six years. He has a wide acquaintance among students he has been forced to reprimand for various pranks, but who nevertheless speak of "Deck" as a friend.

Wilson Hall, candidate for the nomination for marshal, formerly was sheriff here. He was formerly constable of Bourbon township and marshal at Sturgeon. He came from Kentucky to this state about thirty years ago and has been in Boone County the last ten years.

Police Judge.

M. L. Edwards, police judge, is a candidate for reelection. Thus far no one has filed with Mr. Edwards in the primary lists for the office of police judge.

Treasurer.

W. A. Shaw is the only man who has thus far filed for the office of treasurer of the city. He is a teller at the Boone County National Bank, with which he has been connected the last seven years. Mr. Shaw is a native of Boone County and came to Columbia eight years ago. This is his first race.

City Collector.

Berry W. Jacobs, who is now filling out the unexpired term of Walter F. Hodge, has filed for the primary. When he took the office in July, 1913, Mr. Jacobs says there was a deficit of $8,000. Now he reports there is a surplus of $12,500 in the city treasury. Mr. Jacobs also points to the fact that no money has been set aside for deputy hire, as formerly was the case.

Charles W. Allen, also a candidate for this office, is a native of Missouri. He has been in Columbia the last five years and has been employed at the Hamilton-Brown Factory. This is the first time he has run for public office, though he served a short time as deputy collector several years ago.

L. B. Eubank, also a candidate for the office of city treasurer, is a retired farmer. He has lived for many years on his farm near Woodlandville. Now he lives most of the time in Columbia. He has never held public office.

Harrison Brown Visits Here.

Harrison Brown, who was graduated from the School of Journalism of the University last year, spent Friday and Saturday visiting in Columbia. Mr. Brown is with the Merchants' Trade Journal at Des Moines, Ia. He was managing editor of the University Missourian last year.

Aged Negro Woman Dies.

"Aunt" Susan Ann Flynn, a negro woman born in Kentucky and said to be over 100 years old, died of paralysis this morning at her home eight miles northeast of Columbia. Funeral services will be held Monday at the Mount Hope church.

Miss Johnston to Talk at Forum.

Miss Eva Johnston, adviser of women in the University, will talk at the Y. M. C. A. Forum tomorrow night at 6:45 o'clock on "What the Women of the University expect of the Men of the University."

A Remarkable Piece of Mechanism---

This seems to be the common opinion of every one who has seen our new "Butter-Kist" electric corn popper in operation.

More remarkable than this ingenious machine is the quality of the corn it turns out. Crisp, whole grains buttered with pure Creamery Butter and delivered in a convenient wax paper bag that will soil neither your hands or your apparel.

The "Butter-Kist" Way is the Sanitary Way.
